Mailing Address: Aquifer: Situs Address: Usage: TCEQ: CCN: Acreage: Well Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(s) General Managers requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc. Driginal Permit Production: Amendeed Production Total:	Situs Address: TCEQ: CCN: Acreage: Well Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(List other changes requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc. Criginal Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Image: Constitutes and agreement that the permits with the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgement and greement that the permits will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgement and greement that the permits will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District Act, the District Act, where the advected in the order is of the District Act, where the advected in the constitutes and acknowledgement and greement that the permits will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District Act. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in permit. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in anon-waseful manner. In the event thar groundwater is transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent wast eccased by evaporation and percolation. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in an on-waseful manner. In the event production exceent the quarker work well is therp Poluted or causing polution of the aquifer.	Permit No:	Date Issued:		Expiration Date:
Situs Address: Image: TCEQ: CCN: Acreage: Well Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(s) List other changes requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc. Image: Comparison of the comparison comparison comparis the comparison of the comparis the compariso	Situs Address: Acreage: Usage: TCEQ: CCN: Acreage: Well Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(s) Usage: GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(s) Usato ther changes requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc. Criginal Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Amended Production Total: Amended Production Total: Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgmenta Recommentations, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in acceptance of this permit conductions of the District Act. Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit confuses an achanowledgment and gerement that the permite will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District Act, the District Act. This permit onfers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be motified or annended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the autionized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event production excee the quantity authorized by this permit, or head is eather politation or the augifer. The permiteme must kee precords of the Bound and groundwater produced and the purpose of the District necess the accellation exceed the quartity authorized by the Service transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and pererolation.	Owner/System Name	2:
Usage: TCEQ: CCN: Acreage: Well Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(s) i.ist other changes requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc.	Usage: TCEQ: CCN: Acreage: Well Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(Mailing Address:			Aquife	r:
Weil Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(s) ist other changes requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc.	Weil Number(s) GPS: Latitude Longitude Property ID Number(ist other changes requested; Usage, Permit Acreage, etc.	Situs Address:			I
		Usage:	TCEQ:	CCN:	Acreag	e:
Original Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Comparison of the second production Total: This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and It the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in the pursitive will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District Act, the District Act. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well and for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The opermitter must be accessible to the District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contents of the application, the provisions of the sequal and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant	Original Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Comparing Production Total: Denied:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::	Well Number(s)	GPS: Latitude	Lor	ngitude	Property ID Number
Original Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Comparison of the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and I the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well aff of the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permitter must be accessible to the District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and application. A finding that fail information supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. The explication of the well is	Driginal Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Comparison of the second production Total: Denied:: Denied:: Denied:: Denied:: Openation: Permit Acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Toxas Water Code, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well an one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District and the well is either polluted or cassing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granated on the basis of and contingen tup on the accurac
Original Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Comparison of the second production total in the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in the permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The opernit on of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by everyoration and percolation. The opernitie must be accessible to the District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the apolication pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and the application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and the application the basis of and contents of the application, the provisions of the provisions of the provisions of the basis of and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit stall control. Amended Pursuant to which this permit	Driginal Permit Production: Amended Production Total: Comparison of the second production Total: Denied:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::
Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Denied: Date: This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than on-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit has been sisued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendanets to the application. A finding that fall information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit ald contents of the application, the provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. A	Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment: • This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in permit. • This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. • The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is it transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mill from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. • The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantify authorized by this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that piperovisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. • The serimust baccescisbile tore District representatives. I	ist other changes rea	quested; Usage, Permit	Acreage, etc.
Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment: • This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. • This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. • The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than on-half (1/2) mills from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. • The permitee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit a down to which this permit to show the is insector is incorporated in this permit, and the application and nearce so cooperate fully in any reasonable information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, her provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. • The aptimute advertesperis that	Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment: • This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in permit. • This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. • The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is it transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. • The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that piperimit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. • The semitum base beast supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the premit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of
Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment: • This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act. Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. • This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. • The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. • The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the well District representatives for inspection, and the permit and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent public district representatives. Immediate written notice must be accessible to the District representatives. • The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit as do not the basis of and contingent public distromates for immediate revocation of the perul anothis permit as provisions of this permit and	Amendment Approved: Denied: Date: General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment: • This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in permit. • This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. • The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is 1 transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mille from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. • The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Inneclate written notice must be given to the District. • The site must keep records of the information supplied in that application, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representative for inspection, and the permit and any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the grant. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit shall control. • The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is i	Driginal Permit Produ	uction:
General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incoroporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that flat information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit sh	General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in a permit. This permit confirms no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursua provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The operation by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit thas been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accurracy of the information souplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that for inspectial provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. A violation of the spellication, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of the application the provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail.	Mended Production	Total:
General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit is constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that flat information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that flat information supplied in this permit shall control. A violatation of	General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in a permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The spermit upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit is terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable
General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit is constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in this permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The spin turb accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided b	General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment. This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in a permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The is permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall contr
General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit is constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in the permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aguifer. The spin turb target upon the well site by District representative for inspection, and the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit thas been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as	General Managers Signature: Permit Acknowledgment. This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in a permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The is permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall contr	Amendment Approv	ved: 🗆 Denied: 🗆	Date:
Permit Acknowledgment: This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in th permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fall information has been sugplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A vio	Permit Acknowledgment: This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in 1 permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursua provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is 1 transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The depresentative agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and meents to the application. A finding that f information has possible for imperimit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the appli	11
Permit Acknowledgment: This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in th permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fall information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A vio	Permit Acknowledgment: This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constructs an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in 1 permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursua provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is 1 transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The deprintication and mercent and the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and mercent of the provisions of this permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control.	General Manag	ers Signature
 This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit crusts, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in th permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittem turk teep records of the annount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fall information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit via terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submit	 This permit is granted in accordance with the provisions of the District Act, Water Code, and the rules and orders of the District, and acceptance of this permit constitutes an acknowledgment and agreement that the permittee will comply with the Texas Water Code, the District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in a permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursua provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and on the special provisions of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions	General Wanag		nit Acknowledgm	ent:
District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in the permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit.	District Act, the District rules, orders of the Board, and all the terms, provisions, conditions, requirements and restrictions embodied in the permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursual provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is that transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aguifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the District action is permit and in any amendments to the application of the suff. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017		accordance with the provisions	of the District Act, Wate	er Code, and the rules permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursuan provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. 0. Permittee understands that this permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN	permit. This permit confers no vested rights in the holder, and it may be revoked or suspended, or its terms may be modified or amended pursus provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. 0. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any info provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. Immediate vritten notice must be given to the District in the sevent production exceed in spection pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and may amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punchable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. O. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modificatio	provisions of the District Act. The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and may amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the District rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. <th></th> <th>a rules, orders of the board, and</th> <th>an me terms, provisions</th> <th>, conditions, requirer</th> <th>nems and restrictions embodied in</th>		a rules, orders of the board, and	an me terms, provisions	, conditions, requirer	nems and restrictions embodied in
The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is to transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The opermittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. O. Permittee understands this Permit is valid unt	The operation of the well for the authorized withdrawal must be conducted in a non-wasteful manner. In the event that groundwater is t transported a distance greater than one-half (1/2) mile from the well, it must be transported by a pipeline to prevent waste caused by evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that f information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit is terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Befo			t may be revoked or sus	pended, or its terms n	nay be modified or amended purs evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. O. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of	evaporation and percolation. The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceet the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that f information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit is terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017			must be conducted in a	non-wasteful manner	r. In the event that groundwater is
 The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fall information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the applications, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the District Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. O. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 	 The permittee must keep records of the amount of groundwater produced and the purpose of the production and such records shall be available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production excess the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that f information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017 			rom the well, it must be	transported by a pipe	line to prevent waste caused by available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fall information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the District Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 	 available for inspection by District representatives. Immediate written notice must be given to the District in the event production exceed the quantity authorized by this permit, or the well is either polluted or causing pollution of the aquifer. The site must be accessible to the District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that finformation has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 			ndwater produced and th	e purpose of the proc	luction and such records shall be
 The site must be accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 	 The site must be accessible to the District representative for inspection, and the permittee agrees to cooperate fully in any reasonable inspection of the well and well site by District representatives. The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that f information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit.
 The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distric Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this 	 The application pursuant to which this permit has been issued is incorporated in this permit, and this permit is granted on the basis of and contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that f information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit.
contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that fal information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distri Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017	 contingent upon the accuracy of the information supplied in that application and in any amendments to the application. A finding that f information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 				1 information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distri Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 	 information has been supplied is grounds for immediate revocation of the permit. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this permit and contents of the application, the provisions of this permit shall control. A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit.
 A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Distri- Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 	 A violation of this permit's terms, conditions, requirements, or special provisions, is punishable by civil penalties as provided by the Dist Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. 	information has been s	upplied is grounds for immediate	e revocation of the permi	it. In the event of cor
Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017	Rules. Wherever special provisions are inconsistent with other provisions or District rules, the special provisions prevail. Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017					vil penalties as provided by the Di
 Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017	 Permittee understands that this permit is granted for a five (5) year period. Permittee understands this Permit is valid until modification of any information submitted for this Application and Permit, or expiration of this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017	Rules.
this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017	this Permit. SWORN AND SUBSCRIBED Before me this day of 2017
day of 2017	day of 2017		ais Permit is valid until modifica	tion of any information s	submitted for this App	plication and Permit, or expiration
					SWORN AND SU	BSCRIBED Before me this day of	2017
		Wher Print Name
Notary Public		Owner Signature

HGCD Production/Operating Permit Amendment 125 Lehmann Dr. Ste 202 Kerrville, Texas 78028 Permit Amendment Phone: 830/896/4110